Shoppes of Four Corners

- The Shoppes of Four Corners is a 225,000-square-foot retail center located off U.S. 27 just north of Interstate 4. The west side of the Orlando market is one of the fastest growing sections of Central Florida, positioned between the expanding Orlando and Lakeland urban area.
- This center is poised to emerge as a destination for Polk County's exploding population, and will blend retail and restaurant space in a dynamic setting.
- The Shoppes of Four Corners will serve a market of 140,000 residents within a 20-minute drive.
